

Main Idea & Supporting Details

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade: Grade 1

Part A: Read and Answer

There are four seasons in a year. In spring, flowers bloom and baby animals are born. Summer is hot and kids swim at the pool. Fall brings cool air and colorful leaves. In winter, it snows and people wear warm coats. Each season is special and fun. Read the passage. Then answer the questions.

1. The passage is mostly about the four _____.
2. In spring, _____ bloom and baby animals are born.
3. Summer is _____ and kids swim at the pool.
4. Fall brings cool air and colorful _____.
5. In winter, it _____ and people wear warm coats.
6. Each season is special and _____.
7. The main _____ is that there are four seasons in a year.
8. A detail about summer is that kids _____ at the pool.
9. People wear warm _____ in winter.
10. Match each season to a supporting detail from the passage.

Spring	→ _____	It snows outside
Summer	→ _____	Flowers bloom
Fall	→ _____	Kids swim at the pool
Winter	→ _____	Leaves change color

Part A: Read and Answer

There are four seasons in a year. In spring, flowers bloom and baby animals are born. Summer is hot and kids swim at the pool. Fall brings cool air and colorful leaves. In winter, it snows and people wear warm coats. Each season is special and fun. Read the passage. Then answer the questions.

1. The passage is mostly about the four seasons .
2. In spring, flowers bloom and baby animals are born.
3. Summer is hot and kids swim at the pool.
4. Fall brings cool air and colorful leaves .
5. In winter, it snows and people wear warm coats.
6. Each season is special and fun .
7. The main idea is that there are four seasons in a year.
8. A detail about summer is that kids swim at the pool.
9. People wear warm coats in winter.
10. Match each season to a supporting detail from the passage.

Spring	→ Flowers bloom	It snows outside
Summer	→ Kids swim at the pool	Flowers bloom
Fall	→ Leaves change color	Kids swim at the pool
Winter	→ It snows outside	Leaves change color