

Research Skills

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade: Grade 3

Part A: Fix the Sentence

Each sentence has an error. Rewrite it correctly on the line.

1. Fix the sentence: You do not need to tell anyone where you found your facts for a report.

Rewrite: _____

2. Fix the sentence: The glossary at the front of a book shows the chapter names and page numbers.

Rewrite: _____

3. Fix the sentence:

A magazine article written by a doctor is less reliable than a post by a stranger online.

Rewrite: _____

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the missing word on each line.

1. When you list the books and websites you used, you are making a _____.
2. A good research question starts with a _____ word like who, what, or why.
3. Before writing your report, arrange your notes in a logical _____.
4. Headings in a book help you quickly find the _____ you are looking for.

Part C: True or False?

Read each statement. Circle True or False.

1. Putting facts into your own words is called paraphrasing. True False
2. A website with no author name is always a trustworthy source. True False
3. Bold words in a textbook often signal important vocabulary to learn. True False

Part A: Fix the Sentence

Each sentence has an error. Rewrite it correctly on the line.

1. Fix the sentence: You do not need to tell anyone where you found your facts for a report.

Rewrite: _____

2. Fix the sentence: The glossary at the front of a book shows the chapter names and page numbers.

Rewrite: _____

3. Fix the sentence:

A magazine article written by a doctor is less reliable than a post by a stranger online.

Rewrite: _____

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the missing word on each line.

- When you list the books and websites you used, you are making a bibliography.
- A good research question starts with a question word like who, what, or why.
- Before writing your report, arrange your notes in a logical order.
- Headings in a book help you quickly find the information you are looking for.

Part C: True or False?

Read each statement. Circle True or False.

- Putting facts into your own words is called paraphrasing. True False
- A website with no author name is always a trustworthy source. True False
- Bold words in a textbook often signal important vocabulary to learn. True False