

Government: Local and State

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade: Grade 3

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. A new playground is being built in your town. Which level of government most likely planned it?

- A) federal government
- B) state government
- C) local government
- D) no government was involved

2. Why do citizens pay taxes to the government?

- A) to keep extra money safe
- B) to pay for public services like roads and schools
- C) to give gifts to leaders
- D) to buy things only for the mayor

3. Which statement about voting is true?

- A) Only government leaders can vote.
- B) Children can vote in all elections.
- C) Voting lets citizens choose their leaders.
- D) People must vote for the same person.

4. How are the jobs of a mayor and a governor alike?

- A) They both lead the whole country.
- B) They both lead a level of government and serve the people.
- C) They both work in Washington, D.C.
- D) They both run the fire department.

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. When citizens disagree with a law, they can write letters to their elected _____.
2. The state government is in charge of issuing drivers' _____ to people who pass the test.
3. A _____ is a person who lives in and belongs to a community or country.
4. Local leaders hold public _____ so community members can ask questions.
5. The three levels of government in the United States are local, state, and _____.

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. A new playground is being built in your town. Which level of government most likely planned it?

- A) federal government
- B) state government
- C) local government
- D) no government was involved

2. Why do citizens pay taxes to the government?

- A) to keep extra money safe
- B) to pay for public services like roads and schools
- C) to give gifts to leaders
- D) to buy things only for the mayor

3. Which statement about voting is true?

- A) Only government leaders can vote.
- B) Children can vote in all elections.
- C) Voting lets citizens choose their leaders.
- D) People must vote for the same person.

4. How are the jobs of a mayor and a governor alike?

- A) They both lead the whole country.
- B) They both lead a level of government and serve the people.
- C) They both work in Washington, D.C.
- D) They both run the fire department.

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. When citizens disagree with a law, they can write letters to their elected representatives.
2. The state government is in charge of issuing drivers' licenses to people who pass the test.
3. A citizen is a person who lives in and belongs to a community or country.
4. Local leaders hold public hearings so community members can ask questions.
5. The three levels of government in the United States are local, state, and federal.