

Fact and Opinion

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade: Grade 4

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. Which pair gives one fact and one opinion about the same topic?

- A) The library has 12,000 books. The library is the coziest place in town.
- B) The library is huge. The library is wonderful.
- C) The library opened recently. The library opened recently.
- D) The library is fun. The library is exciting.

2. Which sentence about the ocean is a fact?

- A) Ocean water covers more than 70 percent of Earth.
- B) The ocean is the most peaceful place on Earth.
- C) Everyone should love the ocean.
- D) The ocean is the prettiest color of all.

3. Which sentence about the same ocean is an opinion?

- A) The ocean is the most peaceful place on Earth.
- B) The ocean contains salt water.
- C) Some oceans are deeper than mountains are tall.
- D) Whales live in the ocean.

4. How can a reader tell which sentence is the fact?

- A) Check whether the statement can be proven with evidence
- B) See if it sounds nice when read aloud
- C) Count the number of words used
- D) Look at the punctuation only

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. When you write your own pair, give one statement with evidence and one with a _____.
2. Readers can tell a fact apart from an opinion by checking a reliable _____.
3. An opinion sentence often contains a feeling or judgment _____.
4. A fact sentence usually contains a number, date, or measurable _____.
5. When two writers disagree about the same topic, they likely share different _____.

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. Which pair gives one fact and one opinion about the same topic?

- A) The library has 12,000 books. The library is the coziest place in town.
- B) The library is huge. The library is wonderful.
- C) The library opened recently. The library opened recently.
- D) The library is fun. The library is exciting.

2. Which sentence about the ocean is a fact?

- A) Ocean water covers more than 70 percent of Earth.
- B) The ocean is the most peaceful place on Earth.
- C) Everyone should love the ocean.
- D) The ocean is the prettiest color of all.

3. Which sentence about the same ocean is an opinion?

- A) The ocean is the most peaceful place on Earth.
- B) The ocean contains salt water.
- C) Some oceans are deeper than mountains are tall.
- D) Whales live in the ocean.

4. How can a reader tell which sentence is the fact?

- A) Check whether the statement can be proven with evidence
- B) See if it sounds nice when read aloud
- C) Count the number of words used
- D) Look at the punctuation only

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. When you write your own pair, give one statement with evidence and one with a viewpoint .
2. Readers can tell a fact apart from an opinion by checking a reliable source .
3. An opinion sentence often contains a feeling or judgment word .
4. A fact sentence usually contains a number, date, or measurable detail .
5. When two writers disagree about the same topic, they likely share different perspectives .