

Informational Writing

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade: Grade 4

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. What is the main purpose of informational writing?

- A) To persuade the reader to agree
- B) To entertain with a funny story
- C) To inform or explain a topic with facts
- D) To express personal feelings

2. If the audience is second graders, what should the writer do?

- A) Use long scientific words
- B) Write in simple, clear language
- C) Include only opinions
- D) Skip the topic sentence

3. Which sentence is written for an informational purpose rather than a persuasive one?

- A) Everyone must recycle to save the planet.
- B) You should always eat vegetables at every meal.
- C) The rainforest receives over 80 inches of rain each year.
- D) Solar energy is the best choice for all families.

4. Why should a writer think about the audience before writing?

- A) So they can copy someone else's work
- B) So they can choose the right words and details for the reader
- C) So they can make the paragraph shorter
- D) So they can add more opinions

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. The _____ is the group of people who will read the writing.
2. A writer's _____ is the reason for writing, such as to inform or persuade.
3. Using _____ vocabulary helps younger readers understand informational text.
4. An informational article in a science magazine is written to _____, not to entertain.
5. A writer adjusts the _____ of detail based on what the audience already knows.

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. What is the main purpose of informational writing?

- A) To persuade the reader to agree
- B) To entertain with a funny story
- C) To inform or explain a topic with facts
- D) To express personal feelings

2. If the audience is second graders, what should the writer do?

- A) Use long scientific words
- B) Write in simple, clear language
- C) Include only opinions
- D) Skip the topic sentence

3. Which sentence is written for an informational purpose rather than a persuasive one?

- A) Everyone must recycle to save the planet.
- B) You should always eat vegetables at every meal.
- C) The rainforest receives over 80 inches of rain each year.
- D) Solar energy is the best choice for all families.

4. Why should a writer think about the audience before writing?

- A) So they can copy someone else's work
- B) So they can choose the right words and details for the reader
- C) So they can make the paragraph shorter
- D) So they can add more opinions

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. The audience is the group of people who will read the writing.
2. A writer's purpose is the reason for writing, such as to inform or persuade.
3. Using simpler vocabulary helps younger readers understand informational text.
4. An informational article in a science magazine is written to inform , not to entertain.
5. A writer adjusts the level of detail based on what the audience already knows.