

Poetry Elements

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade: Grade 4

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. Poem A celebrates spring; Poem B mourns winter. What do they share?

- A) Topic of seasons
- B) Same exact mood
- C) Identical rhyme scheme
- D) Identical line count

2. Poem A: short choppy lines. Poem B: long flowing lines. The form change usually affects:

- A) The poet's name
- B) The pace and feel of reading
- C) The page color
- D) The font size

3. A poem repeats "again and again" four times. The poet most likely wants to show:

- A) Surprise
- B) Joy
- C) A feeling of being stuck or tired
- D) Confusion about a topic

4. A poet ends a stanza with the single word "alone." This break is meant to:

- A) Save ink
- B) Match a syllable rule
- C) Start a new rhyme letter
- D) Spotlight loneliness for the reader

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. When two poems share a topic but feel different, their _____ contrasts.
2. A poem's recurring message about life is its _____.
3. Lines that flow into one another without a pause use _____ (one word).
4. The way words are arranged on the page is the poem's _____.
5. Comparing poems helps readers see different _____ on the same topic.

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. Poem A celebrates spring; Poem B mourns winter. What do they share?

- A) Topic of seasons
- B) Same exact mood
- C) Identical rhyme scheme
- D) Identical line count

2. Poem A: short choppy lines. Poem B: long flowing lines. The form change usually affects:

- A) The poet's name
- B) The pace and feel of reading
- C) The page color
- D) The font size

3. A poem repeats "again and again" four times. The poet most likely wants to show:

- A) Surprise
- B) Joy
- C) A feeling of being stuck or tired
- D) Confusion about a topic

4. A poet ends a stanza with the single word "alone." This break is meant to:

- A) Save ink
- B) Match a syllable rule
- C) Start a new rhyme letter
- D) Spotlight loneliness for the reader

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. When two poems share a topic but feel different, their mood contrasts.
2. A poem's recurring message about life is its theme .
3. Lines that flow into one another without a pause use enjambment (one word).
4. The way words are arranged on the page is the poem's form .
5. Comparing poems helps readers see different perspectives on the same topic.