

Point of View and Perspective

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade: Grade 4

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. Two friends argue over a broken kite. What is most likely true about their perspectives?

- A) They will see different details and feelings
- B) They will share the same details
- C) They will only use third person
- D) They will both use the pronoun you

2. A story is told by Sam in first person. If it switched to Sam's sister in first person, what would change most?

- A) The pronouns would all become you
- B) The reader would hear the sister's thoughts and feelings
- C) The story would have no narrator
- D) The story would become second person

3. Why might an author pick third person omniscient for a story about a whole town?

- A) To follow only one character's mind
- B) To address the reader directly
- C) To share many characters' thoughts and events
- D) To hide all character thoughts

4. How does point of view affect the reader's information?

- A) It has no effect on what readers learn
- B) It only changes the setting
- C) It only changes the dialogue
- D) It can limit or expand what readers know

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. Two characters at the same picnic may notice different _____ based on their feelings.
2. If a third person limited story switched to first person, the pronoun he would change to _____.
3. Authors pick second person when they want the reader to feel they are the _____.
4. Comparing perspectives helps readers understand each character's feelings and _____.
5. Point of view is one of the most important _____ an author makes when writing a story.

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. Two friends argue over a broken kite. What is most likely true about their perspectives?

- A) They will see different details and feelings
- B) They will share the same details
- C) They will only use third person
- D) They will both use the pronoun you

2. A story is told by Sam in first person. If it switched to Sam's sister in first person, what would change most?

- A) The pronouns would all become you
- B) The reader would hear the sister's thoughts and feelings
- C) The story would have no narrator
- D) The story would become second person

3. Why might an author pick third person omniscient for a story about a whole town?

- A) To follow only one character's mind
- B) To address the reader directly
- C) To share many characters' thoughts and events
- D) To hide all character thoughts

4. How does point of view affect the reader's information?

- A) It has no effect on what readers learn
- B) It only changes the setting
- C) It only changes the dialogue
- D) It can limit or expand what readers know

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. Two characters at the same picnic may notice different details based on their feelings.
2. If a third person limited story switched to first person, the pronoun he would change to I .
3. Authors pick second person when they want the reader to feel they are the character .
4. Comparing perspectives helps readers understand each character's feelings and motives .
5. Point of view is one of the most important choices an author makes when writing a story.