

Comparing Texts

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade: Grade 5

Part A: Fill in the Blank

Write the missing word or number on each line.

1. The way an author arranges ideas in a text is called the text _____ .
2. A text that explains events in time order uses _____ structure.
3. A text that shows how things are alike and different uses compare and _____ structure.
4. Two texts on the same topic may use different structures to _____ their information.
5. A text that explains why something happened and what resulted uses cause and _____ structure.
6. Signal words like first, next, and finally indicate a _____ text structure.
7. The problem and _____ structure presents an issue and then explains how it is resolved.
8. Comparing text structures helps you understand how authors present _____ differently.
9. A text that groups related ideas together uses a _____ and description structure.

Part B: Matching

Match each item on the left to the correct answer on the right.

1. Match each item to its correct answer.

"First settlers arrived, then built homes, finally formed a town"	→ _____	cause and effect
"Pollution caused fish to die; cleaning the river brought them back"	→ _____	problem and solution
"City life is fast-paced while country life is relaxed and quiet"	→ _____	chronological order
"Traffic was terrible, so the town added a new bus route"	→ _____	compare and contrast

Part A: Fill in the Blank

Write the missing word or number on each line.

1. The way an author arranges ideas in a text is called the text structure.
2. A text that explains events in time order uses chronological structure.
3. A text that shows how things are alike and different uses compare and contrast structure.
4. Two texts on the same topic may use different structures to organize their information.
5. A text that explains why something happened and what resulted uses cause and effect structure.
6. Signal words like first, next, and finally indicate a sequential text structure.
7. The problem and solution structure presents an issue and then explains how it is resolved.
8. Comparing text structures helps you understand how authors present information differently.
9. A text that groups related ideas together uses a topic and description structure.

Part B: Matching

Match each item on the left to the correct answer on the right.

1. Match each item to its correct answer.

"First settlers arrived, then built homes, finally formed a town"	→ chronological order	cause and effect
"Pollution caused fish to die; cleaning the river brought them back"	→ cause and effect	problem and solution
"City life is fast-paced while country life is relaxed and quiet"	→ compare and contrast	chronological order
"Traffic was terrible, so the town added a new bus route"	→ problem and solution	compare and contrast