

Poetry Analysis

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade: Grade 5

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. A poem describes a quiet forest at dawn with soft mist and chirping birds. What is the mood?

- A) Peaceful
- B) Angry
- C) Frightening
- D) Confused

2. A poem ends with: 'But still, the small seed pushed through the stone.' What theme does this suggest?

- A) Fear of the dark
- B) Perseverance
- C) Joy of summer
- D) Love of food

3. A poet writes short, choppy lines with many exclamation points. What tone does this create?

- A) Calm
- B) Sleepy
- C) Excited
- D) Sad

4. Why might a poet break a single sentence across several lines in a poem?

- A) To save paper
- B) To confuse readers
- C) To hide the meaning
- D) To slow readers down and emphasize words

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. The big idea or message of a poem is called the _____.
2. The feeling a poem creates in the reader is called the _____.
3. The poet's attitude toward the subject is called the _____.
4. When a poet uses short lines, readers tend to _____ down their reading.
5. Putting two poems on the same topic side by side is called _____ poems.

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. A poem describes a quiet forest at dawn with soft mist and chirping birds. What is the mood?

- A) Peaceful
- B) Angry
- C) Frightening
- D) Confused

2. A poem ends with: 'But still, the small seed pushed through the stone.' What theme does this suggest?

- A) Fear of the dark
- B) Perseverance
- C) Joy of summer
- D) Love of food

3. A poet writes short, choppy lines with many exclamation points. What tone does this create?

- A) Calm
- B) Sleepy
- C) Excited
- D) Sad

4. Why might a poet break a single sentence across several lines in a poem?

- A) To save paper
- B) To confuse readers
- C) To hide the meaning
- D) To slow readers down and emphasize words

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. The big idea or message of a poem is called the theme .
2. The feeling a poem creates in the reader is called the mood .
3. The poet's attitude toward the subject is called the tone .
4. When a poet uses short lines, readers tend to slow down their reading.
5. Putting two poems on the same topic side by side is called comparing poems.