Answer Key · Point of View and Narrator · Grade: Grade 5

Part A: Fix the Sentence

---

Each sentence has an error. Rewrite it correctly on the line.

1. Fix the sentence: 'We hiked up the hill together' is third-person POV.

Rewrite: 'We hiked up the hill together' is first-person POV because the narrator uses we.

2. Fix the sentence: 'You hold the rope tightly and climb up' uses third-person POV.

Rewrite: 'You hold the rope tightly and climb up' uses second-person POV because the narrator uses you.

3. Fix the sentence: 'Maria opened the door and looked inside' is in first-person POV.

Rewrite: 'Maria opened the door and looked inside' is in third-person POV because the narrator uses Maria's name.

Part B: Fill in the Blank

---

Write the missing word or number on each line.

- The passage 'I tied my shoes and ran' is written in first person POV.
- 'You feel the cool wind on your face' is written in second person POV.
- 'He grabbed his backpack and left' is written in third person POV.
- The pronoun I is the key marker for first-person POV stories.

Part C: Short Answer

Answer each question in one or two complete sentences.

1. How does second-person point of view make a reader feel different from third-person?

Second-person makes the reader feel like the main character because the narrator says you. Third-person feels like watching the story from outside.

2. Which point of view would a personal diary entry most likely use, and why?

A diary entry would use first-person POV because the writer is sharing their own thoughts and uses I, me, and my throughout the entry.
