Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the missing word or number on each line.

1. The professor's lecture was so lucid that even the youngest students could follow every idea.
2. Although the twins looked alike, their personalities were completely different from each other.
3. The mayor gave a concise speech that lasted only three minutes but said everything important.
4. Instead of being arrogant about his trophy, Marcus stayed humble and thanked his teammates.

Part C: Short Answer

Answer each question in one or two complete sentences.

1. List three Grade 5 synonyms for 'angry' and explain which one shows the strongest feeling.

Three synonyms for angry are annoyed, furious, and livid. 'Livid' shows the strongest feeling because it describes someone so angry they can barely speak. 'Annoyed' is the mildest, and 'furious' is in between.

2. Give an antonym pair that involves transparency and explain how the words are opposite.

An antonym pair is transparent and opaque. 'Transparent' means you can see through something completely, like clean glass. 'Opaque' means light cannot pass through at all, like a brick wall. They are opposites because they describe how much light or sight passes through a material.
