

Theme in Literature

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade: Grade 5

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. Read: Kai wanted to win the art contest more than anything. He considered copying his older sister's painting but decided to create his own. He did not win, but his teacher praised his originality. What is the strongest theme?

- A) Art contests are unfair because only one person can win.
- B) Being original and honest is more valuable than winning.
- C) Kai should have copied his sister's work to win.
- D) Teachers always prefer original work over copied work.

2. Read: Two villages argued over who owned a river. After a drought nearly destroyed both, they agreed to share the water and built a canal together. Which theme has the strongest evidence?

- A) Rivers belong to the village that finds them first.
- B) Droughts are the most dangerous natural disasters.
- C) Cooperation during hardship benefits everyone more than conflict does.
- D) Building canals is the best way to solve water problems.

3. Read: Nina's grandmother could no longer see well enough to sew, so Nina learned to sew and finished her grandmother's quilt. Neighbors said Nina was too young, but her stitches were perfect. What is the theme?

- A) Sewing is a difficult skill that takes years to learn.
- B) Grandmothers should teach their grandchildren crafts early.
- C) Age does not determine what a person is capable of achieving.
- D) Nina was already a talented sewer before her grandmother's problem.

4. A story could have both the theme 'Family comes first' and 'Following your dreams matters.' How should a reader decide which theme is strongest?

- A) Choose the theme the reader personally agrees with most.
- B) Pick whichever theme is mentioned first in the story.
- C) Look for the theme that has the most supporting evidence from the text.
- D) The strongest theme is always the one about family.

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. Read: Kai wanted to win the art contest more than anything. He considered copying his older sister's painting but decided to create his own. He did not win, but his teacher praised his originality. What is the strongest theme?

- A) Art contests are unfair because only one person can win.
- B) Being original and honest is more valuable than winning.
- C) Kai should have copied his sister's work to win.
- D) Teachers always prefer original work over copied work.

2. Read: Two villages argued over who owned a river. After a drought nearly destroyed both, they agreed to share the water and built a canal together. Which theme has the strongest evidence?

- A) Rivers belong to the village that finds them first.
- B) Droughts are the most dangerous natural disasters.
- C) Cooperation during hardship benefits everyone more than conflict does.
- D) Building canals is the best way to solve water problems.

3. Read: Nina's grandmother could no longer see well enough to sew, so Nina learned to sew and finished her grandmother's quilt. Neighbors said Nina was too young, but her stitches were perfect. What is the theme?

- A) Sewing is a difficult skill that takes years to learn.
- B) Grandmothers should teach their grandchildren crafts early.
- C) Age does not determine what a person is capable of achieving.
- D) Nina was already a talented sewer before her grandmother's problem.

4. A story could have both the theme 'Family comes first' and 'Following your dreams matters.' How should a reader decide which theme is strongest?

- A) Choose the theme the reader personally agrees with most.
- B) Pick whichever theme is mentioned first in the story.
- C) Look for the theme that has the most supporting evidence from the text.
- D) The strongest theme is always the one about family.

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. A story can have more than one theme, but the strongest theme is supported by the most _____