

Halloween Math & Reading

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade: Grade 5

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. Read: "The jack-o-lanterns grinned from every porch, their flickering eyes watching the parade of tiny ghosts and superheroes." What literary device is used?

- A) Simile
- B) Personification
- C) Alliteration
- D) Hyperbole

2. An author writes a story where a child overcomes fear of a haunted house by learning it was just old plumbing making noises. What is the theme?

- A) Haunted houses are always fake
- B) Things are not always as scary as they seem
- C) Plumbing should be repaired quickly
- D) Children should avoid old houses

3. Read: "Cobwebs draped like silver curtains across the ancient doorway." What two things are being compared in this simile?

- A) Cobwebs and silver
- B) Doorway and curtains
- C) Cobwebs and curtains
- D) Silver and ancient

4. A newspaper article explains the history of trick-or-treating in America. What is the author's primary purpose?

- A) To entertain with a spooky story
- B) To persuade readers to go trick-or-treating
- C) To inform readers about a Halloween tradition
- D) To describe a personal Halloween memory

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. When an author writes to teach the reader facts, the purpose is to _____.
2. The lesson or message the author wants you to take away from a story is the _____.
3. Words like "creepy," "dark," and "howling" help create a spooky _____.
4. Comparing two unlike things WITHOUT using "like" or "as" is a _____.
5. The person telling the story is called the _____.

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. Read: "The jack-o-lanterns grinned from every porch, their flickering eyes watching the parade of tiny ghosts and superheroes." What literary device is used?

- A) Simile
- B) Personification
- C) Alliteration
- D) Hyperbole

2. An author writes a story where a child overcomes fear of a haunted house by learning it was just old plumbing making noises. What is the theme?

- A) Haunted houses are always fake
- B) Things are not always as scary as they seem
- C) Plumbing should be repaired quickly
- D) Children should avoid old houses

3. Read: "Cobwebs draped like silver curtains across the ancient doorway." What two things are being compared in this simile?

- A) Cobwebs and silver
- B) Doorway and curtains
- C) Cobwebs and curtains
- D) Silver and ancient

4. A newspaper article explains the history of trick-or-treating in America. What is the author's primary purpose?

- A) To entertain with a spooky story
- B) To persuade readers to go trick-or-treating
- C) To inform readers about a Halloween tradition
- D) To describe a personal Halloween memory

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. When an author writes to teach the reader facts, the purpose is to inform .
2. The lesson or message the author wants you to take away from a story is the theme .
3. Words like "creepy," "dark," and "howling" help create a spooky mood .
4. Comparing two unlike things WITHOUT using "like" or "as" is a metaphor .
5. The person telling the story is called the narrator .