

Winter Holiday Math & Reading

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade: Grade 5

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. An author writes: "The old oak stood guard over the frozen pond, its bare arms reaching toward the gray sky." What literary device is used?

- A) Simile
- B) Personification
- C) Hyperbole
- D) Alliteration

2. A story describes a child helping neighbors shovel snow after a blizzard. What is the most likely theme?

- A) Winter is dangerous
- B) Community and kindness matter
- C) Snow is fun to play in
- D) Children are stronger than adults

3. A news article explains how salt melts ice on roads. What is the author's primary purpose?

- A) To persuade readers to use less salt
- B) To entertain with a funny story
- C) To inform readers about a scientific process
- D) To express a personal opinion about winter

4. "The blizzard roared like a freight train through the valley." This sentence contains which two devices?

- A) Metaphor and alliteration
- B) Simile and personification
- C) Hyperbole and metaphor
- D) Onomatopoeia and simile

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. The reason an author writes a text is called the author's _____.
2. The central message or lesson of a story is called the _____.
3. A comparison using "like" or "as" is a _____.
4. Words that imitate sounds, such as "crunch" or "whoosh," are called _____.
5. The _____ of a story is where and when it takes place.

Part A: Multiple Choice

Circle the best answer for each question.

1. An author writes: "The old oak stood guard over the frozen pond, its bare arms reaching toward the gray sky." What literary device is used?

- A) Simile
- B) Personification
- C) Hyperbole
- D) Alliteration

2. A story describes a child helping neighbors shovel snow after a blizzard. What is the most likely theme?

- A) Winter is dangerous
- B) Community and kindness matter
- C) Snow is fun to play in
- D) Children are stronger than adults

3. A news article explains how salt melts ice on roads. What is the author's primary purpose?

- A) To persuade readers to use less salt
- B) To entertain with a funny story
- C) To inform readers about a scientific process
- D) To express a personal opinion about winter

4. "The blizzard roared like a freight train through the valley." This sentence contains which two devices?

- A) Metaphor and alliteration
- B) Simile and personification
- C) Hyperbole and metaphor
- D) Onomatopoeia and simile

Part B: Fill in the Blank

Write the correct answer on each line.

1. The reason an author writes a text is called the author's purpose .
2. The central message or lesson of a story is called the theme .
3. A comparison using "like" or "as" is a simile .
4. Words that imitate sounds, such as "crunch" or "whoosh," are called onomatopoeia .
5. The setting of a story is where and when it takes place.