Part C: Short Answer

Answer each question in one or two complete sentences.

1. Compare the role of a Senator with the role of a Cabinet member in our government.

A Senator works in the legislative branch and helps write and vote on laws for the whole country. A Cabinet member works in the executive branch and advises the President on running a department, like defense or education.

2. Why do Supreme Court Justices serve for life instead of being elected like Senators?

Justices serve for life so they can make fair decisions without worrying about pleasing voters or losing elections. This independence helps them protect the Constitution and treat every citizen equally under the law.
